Three Lessons from Today's Sermon!

As followers of Jesus we have great comfort knowing that God and His Word is true!

As we study this book together the sovereignty of God becomes ever so clear. In this chapter we find that the words written in the little book are sealed up. But in verse seven we also discover that the day is coming when God's mystery will be revealed to all.

Three Lessons from Today's Sermon!

As followers of Jesus we have great discomfort knowing that many, today and in the future, will reject Christ and His Word!

Because of this rejection God has given them over in their lusts to impurity. For they have exchanged the truth of God for a lie. The “unsaved” sinner will be judged for his/her sinfulness.

Sin cannot and will not go unpunished!

Three Lessons from Today's Sermon!

As followers of Jesus we have confidence knowing that God is both loving and just!

Unlike Satan who unleashes great torment and pain on those who choose to follow him (cf.9:6), all those who follow Jesus will receive a blessing. This blessing, first promised in Revelation 1:3, is detailed for us in Revelation chapters 21 and 22. The day is coming when the mystery of God will be revealed and the blessings of God will be received by all who place their faith and trust in Him.

Next Week We Continue Our Journey Through The Interludes in the book of Revelation!
